INFORMED CONSENT FOR MINOIS

Washington Stale law recognizes the right of 13-17 year olds to consent to their own treatment, which also protects their rights to confidentiality. When working with adolescents Kimberly Green believes that it is important to work with the family while preserving the adolescent’s right to confidentiality. Treatment is typically impeded if an adolescent does not feel s/he has a private place to talk about concerns. Thus, your therapist typically seeks the adolescent’s consent before speaking with parents. Of course, the same limits to confidentiality that apply to adults (listed in the “Notice of Privacy Practices”) also apply to minors.

I hereby authorize Kimberly Green, M.Ed, LMFT, a licensed marriage and family therapist to render mental health services to _____. This authorization constitutes informed consent without exception. I have read and understand the “Office Policy Statement” and “Notice of Privacy Practices” and have received a copy of these policies for myself.

OFFICE POLICY STATEMENT

APPOINTMENTS

Your appointment time is held especially for you. Your co-payment or co-insurance is due and payable at the time of service. There is no charge for an appointment canceled or rescheduled twenty-four hours in advance.

CANCELLATIONS

Twenty-four hour notice is required to avoid a session charge. If you cancel with less than twenty-four hours notice, or fail to come to your appointment, the full session fee (per the fee schedule) will be charged. This charge is due and payable at the time of your next session. Insurance does not pay for missed appointments. If this office is able to schedule another appointment with someone else for your time slot, your fees may be partially waived. You are asked to understand that messages left over the weekend on the office voice mail for Monday appointments cannot be filled.

FEES

The therapy charge covers a forty-five minute visit, plus record keeping, preparation and billing. In addition to fees for intake and sessions, you may be billed for reports, letters, or phone calls on your behalf to physicians, attorneys, agencies, employers, etc., and for lengthy phone conversations. Please review the attached fee schedule and fee agreement.

PAYMENT POLICY

You or the minor's legal guardian is responsible for the accounts. You are expected to pay the bill when due, whether medical insurance pays for a portion or not, including charges for evaluation, printed materials, reports, letters, consultations and telephone calls. If 90 days passes without a payment or prior arrangement accounts may be sent to collections at your cost. Results of evaluation or reports may not be released until all accounts are paid in full. We understand that finances can be difficult, and you may set up a payment plan if necessary. This entails a written agreement to pay a fixed amount regularly each month until the balance is paid in full. If regular payment stops, the balance will be considered delinquent, and finance charges and collection procedures may be instituted. Bills are sent out monthly; if you have any questions about your bill, please ask.

INSURANCE

Kimberly Green is a contracted provider for some, but not all, insurance companies. You must check with your insurer to learn whether she is a provider for your plan. You must also determine if you need a referral or preauthorization to use your mental health benefit, whether you have a separate annual deductible for mental health, and whether your mental health benefit has a maximum yearly number of visits or a maximum yearly dollar amount. Claims will be submitted to insurance companies with whom your therapist is contracted. In order for this to occur you must complete the insurance portion of the “General Information” form that was given to you with this office policy; you also need to provide a copy of your insurance card.

PHONE. CONTACT AND EMERGENCIES

Kimberly Green has a voice mail on which you may leave messages. If you are unable to reach Kimberly directly and are experiencing an emergency, PLEASE CALL THE CRISIS LINE FOR YOUR COUNTY OF RESIDENCE. The Pierce County Crisis line number is (253) 798-4333, (800) 576-7764 (Pierce County/Tacoma).

CONFIDENTIALITY

Please see the attached “Notice of Privacy Practices”

RECORD KEEPING

Please note that records are kept of your visits. You may request that no treatment records be kept. To do so, you must submit a request in writing to Kimberly Green. The letter must request that she maintain no treatment records, but also that you understand she must comply with Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 246-924- 354 and retain in your record your identity as the recipient of services, service dates and fees, description of services (e.g. individual session), and the request for no records. Kim Green has an obligation to not agree to the request if other state or federal law requires the maintenance of records.

THERAPIST AS WITNESS:

Your therapist is providing therapy and is not, unless alternative arrangements are made in advance, an expert witness. Client agrees that the counselor shall not be called as a witness at any court hearing or trial, arbitration, mediation or other tribunal, and client authorizes the therapist to disregard any subpoena for his or her appearance at any deposition or hearing. The therapist is likewise not obligated to respond to telephone calls or relay any opinions to others, except in writing, with payment in advance, when authorized. A therapist’s responding to requests for such opinions shall not be deemed a waiver of this clause. If therapist agrees to be a witness or testify, a separate agreement setting forth the cost for it and prepayment shall be required.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Your therapist is responsible for developing and implementing a treatment plan that employs the most effective approaches and techniques available to help you deal with your problems. She is responsible for using therapy time therapeutically—that is, for not wasting time or otherwise allowing its misuse. Kim Green is responsible for appropriate use of available resources to deal with a psychological emergency if you should experience one. She is responsible for making appropriate referrals to other health care providers if she becomes aware of a problem that is outside the limits of her therapeutic expertise.

You are responsible for changing. As part of that responsibility, you are responsible for working on your problems both during therapy sessions and in your daily life.

You are responsible for bringing into therapy your experiences, thoughts, and dealing openly with your therapist about them.

SNOW AND INCLEMENT WEATHER

If at any time you are concerned about whether the office is open due to wind, snow, rain, power outages, etc., please listen for closures of Peninsula School District 402 (Pierce County). If the School District determines it is best to close so will we. If the District is late, please note that the office will likely also open late. Any appointments before 10:00 AM should be presumed cancelled, unless otherwise verified by this office.

We understand that if you are coming from an area that is hampered by the elements, even if we are not, that it is unfair to penalize you for a late cancel. You must call, however, to notify this office that you cannot make it in for your regular appointment.

Please speak with your therapist if you have any further questions.
